

FERN CREEK BABE RUTH LEAGUE RULES
ALL*STAR MANAGER AND PLAYER SELECTION

MANAGER SELECTION:

- Division league representative polls all division managers and their assistant coaches approximately (2) weeks prior to All*Star player selection to determine which managers and assistant coaches are interested and available in becoming an All*Star manager.
- The division league representative holds a meeting with all managers within the division (or their duly appointed representative) approximately (1) week prior to All*Star player selection to determine the All*Star manager candidates. At this meeting, the division league representative and all of the division managers confidentially vote to determine the top (2) All*Star manager candidates.
- The division league representative then presents the top (2) candidates to the executive board for their vote and approval.

Player selection:

- The player-agent, along with the president, conducts the All*Star player selection meetings. The number of All*Star teams is to be determined by the executive board.
- Each manager can nominate players from their own team as well as players from other teams.
- Number of players per team:
All*Star teams will roster (13) players, all of which are voted upon by the respective division managers (or their duly appointed representative).
- All*Star player selection date: on or about June 1st.
